

LOVE RECORDS !

1) The most expensive Valentine card cost £ 180, 000. A Greek millionaire sent a gold card with diamonds and emeralds and placed a mink coat inside.

2) The oldest bridegroom was Ralph Cambridge, of South Africa, who married at the age of 105.
Britain's oldest bridegroom was Edward Simpson, who was nearly 99 when he was married at Swindon, Wilts, to a bride of 83.

3) The longest recorded engagement was that of Octavia Guillen and Adriana Martiney who were married in Mexico city in 1969 after being engaged for sixty-seven years.

5) People marry youngest in India, where the average age of bridegrooms is 20 and brides only 14. They marry latest in Ireland, where the average age of bridegrooms is 31.4 years and brides 26.5 years.

6) The record for being married most times in the western world is held by Glynn de Moss Wolfe, a 69-year-old American who has been married nineteen times. He is reported to keep two wedding dresses of different sizes in his wardrobe, ready for instant use.

4) The biggest mass wedding took place on St Valentine's Day, 1975, when 1, 800 couples were married in a huge ceremony in Seoul, South Korea.

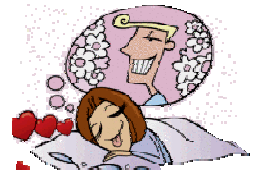

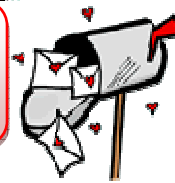

8) The most-married English King was Henry VIII who got married six times.

7) The most-married western woman was a Los Angeles barmaid, Beverly Avery, who obtained sixteen divorces from fourteen husbands.

9) In US, over 1 billion Valentine cards and 110 million roses are sent every year.

COMPLETE THE CHART

- 31.4 : .....
- THE OLDEST BRIDEGROOM : .....
- GLYNN DE MOSS WOLFE : .....
- AVERAGE AGE OF BRIDES IN INDIA : .....
- 1975 : .....
- THE LONGEST ENGAGEMENT : .....
- THE MOST EXPENSIVE VALENTINE CARD : .....
- THE MOST MARRIED WOMAN : .....
- EDWARD SIMPSON : .....
- BEVERLY AVERY : .....
- HENRY VIII : .....
- NUMBER OF CARDS SENT IN THE US : .....
- NUMBER OF ROSES BOUGHT IN US : .....