

The dinosaur song

YouTube: The dinosaur song – Big World Club

They used to walk, they used to swim.
They used to fly, with a toothy grin.
Some ate plants, some ate meat.
Some walked around on just two feet.

The dinosaurs... big as trees.
The dinosaurs! Brains like peas.
Jaws and claws and teeth and bones.
That used growl and groan and moan.

Some had feathers, some had scales.
Spikes of clubs and whip-like tails.
They fought like dragons, the earth sure shook
The volcanoes sizzled and the lava cooked.

The dinosaurs... big as trees.
The dinosaurs! Brains like peas.
Jaws and claws and teeth and bones.
That used growl and groan and moan.

Tyrannosaurus Rex was a terrible king.
The Stegosaurus' tail could really swing.
Brachiosaurus liked to stomp.
Trachodon would chew and chomp.

The dinosaurs... big as trees.
The dinosaurs! Brains like peas.
Jaws and claws and teeth and bones.
That used growl and groan and moan.

They roamed the earth, a hundred million years.
Without worries, cares or fears.
Then one day they hit the soil.
Now they're fossils, gas and oil!

The dinosaurs... big as trees.
The dinosaurs! Brains like peas.
Jaws and claws and teeth and bones.
That used growl and groan and moan.
